

Vincent Van Gogh – Part 1 (1853-1887)

April 2024

Born 30th March 1853 in Zundert, Netherlands

Died 29th July 1890 in Auvers-sur-Oise, France, age 37 years

Self-Portrait in front of the Easel, January, 1888, Paris,

Sketch of Austin Friars Church, London, 1873-75

Men and Women Miners going to work, Borinage, South Belgium, 1880

It was after this period when he failed as a preacher, that Vincent decided to become an artist.

Still life with Cabbage and Clogs, The Hague, November-December 1881

Bridge and houses on the corner of Herengracht-Princessegracht, March 1882

View of The Hague – Paddemoes, The Hague, 1882

Beach at Scheveningen in Stormy Weather, The Hague, 1882

Bulb Fields, The Hague, April 1883

Peasants, The Hague, 1882
(Studies based on the work of Jean-Francoise Millet)

Weaver, Nuenen, 1884

Landscape with pollard birches, Nuenen, April 1884

Pollard Birches, Nuenen, March 1884

Farmers Planting Potatoes, Nuenen ,August-September 1884

The Potato Eaters, Nuenen, April 1885

The Cottage, Nuenen, May 1885

Still life with Bible, Nuenen, October 1885

View of Amsterdam from Central Station, October 1885

Backyards of Old Houses Antwerp in the Snow, Antwerp, December 1885

Portrait of a Woman, Antwerp, December 1885

Portrait of a Woman with a Red Ribbon, Antwerp, December 1885

View of Paris from Vincent's Studio, Paris, June 1886

The Hill of Montmartre with Stone Quarry, Paris, June-July 1886

Moulin de la Galette, Paris, Spring 1886
Vincent painted several views of the Moulin de la Galette at this time.

Anatomical Studies, Paris, March-May 1886

Still Lifes

Small bottle with peonies and blue delphiniums, Paris, June-July 1886

Vase with red gladioli, Paris, summer 1886

Flowers (fritillaries) in a copper vase, Paris 1887

Shoes, Paris, September-November 1886

Still life with absinthe, Paris 1887

Still life with three books, Paris 1887

1887 – The influence of Impressionism and Pointillism:

Fishing in Spring, Pont de Clichy, Paris, Spring 1887

Banks of the Seine with Boats, Paris, 1887

Factories at Clichy, Paris, summer 1887

Factory at Asnières, Paris, July-September 1887

Interior of a Restaurant, Paris June-July 1887

Portraits

Portrait of Léonie Rose Charbuy-Davy, Paris, March-April 1887

Portrait of Etienne-Lucien Martin, Paris, November 1887

Portrait of Père Tanguy, Paris, 1887

In the Café: Agostina Segatori in Le Tambourin, Paris, January-March 1887

Japonaiserie

The Courtesan (after Eisen), Paris, 1887

Flowering Plum Orchard (after Hiroshige), Paris, 1887

Self portraits

There are 35 known self-portraits by van Gogh – Vincent is second only to Rembrandt! There's one photograph taken when he was 19.

Vincent left Paris in February 1888 to live in the South of France – that's for next month.